

KS4 & 5 Independent Learning

After each lesson review where you are and where you could push your ideas to next. Consider how you are using your artists' techniques and styles within your own work too. Think about how you can add more meaning into your own work.

Regularly review your sketchbook/portfolio and ensure presentation and annotation is up to date. Ensure your annotation explains your creative intent and links to artists.

Regularly research for new artists on Pinterest, Google, This is Colossal and Tate websites to broaden your knowledge and find new inspiration for your own practical work.

<http://www.thisiscolossal.com/>

<http://www.tate.org.uk/art>

Use the school or Art Dept libraries to develop your awareness of art analysis. Andrew Graham-Dixon is respected art historian who writes reviews for newspapers and TV. Check his website to see how to successfully write about/analyse art

<http://www.andrewgrahamdixon.com/archive.html>

Watch Sky Arts or BBC 4 for regular art history programs. Also visit local or London Art Galleries to broaden your knowledge.